Happy May Day!!

You're asking for more classes and we're trying to get them all scheduled! New this month we have a Wreck this Journal Club...come each month and we'll do some pages together as well as have some "homework" that we'll share at the next meeting. We've also added a Mixed Media class. Join us and go home with an original design by Christy. We've also added extra Cricut Workshops (including a night class) and a Finish Your Folio Workshop so you can finally finish all those fun Folios we've made in previous classes.
