Happy Holidays!! This year has certainly been different than years past and we are very grateful for the continued support during these trying times. With many small businesses making the difficult decision to close their doors, YOU have kept us open and we appreciate it more than words can express. Going forward into the new year, we are going to bring some new classes to the store, as well as getting some of our classes on-line and updating our website.

Hugs, Franki & the Let's Create Team
