Hello Friends!!

It's hard to believe we are already planning for Christmas, but here we are doing just that! We are changing things up a little bit. We will not have a Transparency Class this month, instead we will be offering a 3D Topper Christmas Gnome Class. We will also feature Penny Black for our card class. All the cards are designed with their new Christmas line. Plus, we are bring back Mixed Media for a beautiful Christmas project. Can't make it in November, call for December availability.

We also have a new credit card policy...if a purchase is $15 or under there will be a $.50 surcharge to use a card. Our fees have gone up and we can no longer cover that expense for small purchases. We thank you for your understanding.

Make sure you check out the rest of the newsletter for all the happenings this month.

See you all soon!! Hugs, Franki & the Let's Create Team
