Happy New Year to all our friends, near and far!

It is hard to believe that another year has flown by...guess that's what happens when you're having this much fun!

We are coming back with a full schedule of classes, including, knitting, technique book and painting. Kelly is quite the artist and has designed an adorable snowman scene to kick off the return of our painting classes. Lisa will offer a cute wonky envelope project this month which is perfect for Valentine's Day, birthdays or any occasion...papers will be picked by you! Pick Your Project and the 2 Day Craft Weekend are also back. Reserve your spot and get your projects finished. Read on for details.

Make sure you keep checking the newsletter, Facebook, the website, and our YouTube channel for exciting things to come this year. The plan is to create new classes, in addition to some fun on-line happenings. Our website will continue to be updated to include more on-line shopping options (with both local pick-up and shipping options). We are here for you, so if you have a request, please feel free to share with us.

Our yearly date of events will be planned at our January employee meeting. Make sure you check out the calendar page of the website and mark your calendars so you don't miss out on the fun! Mark your calendars now for the Stampede...May 2-4, 2024 at Hotel Mead. More info and website page coming soon.

We are so blessed to continue sharing our love of crafting with all of you. Customers become friends and friends become family...thank you for being part of ours.

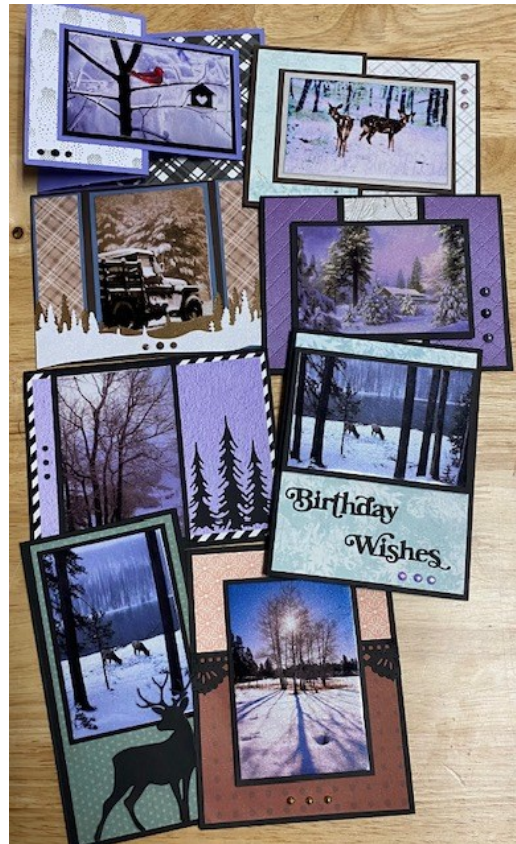

See you soon!!

Hugs, Franki & the Let's Create Team
